

College of Engineering, Technology, and Architecture
UNIVERSITY OF HARTFORD

Department of Architecture
MASTER OF ARCHITECTURE

The Master of Architecture program is an exciting combination of theory and practical experience which challenges a student to reach their full potential as an emerging architect. The multidisciplinary approach allows students to customize their education to fit their interests and career goals

Course Name	Credit Hours
Core Courses
ARC 511 Architectural Studio I	6
ARC 512 Advanced Site Planning	4
ARC 513 Advanced Building Systems	3
ARC 521 Architectural Studio II	6
ARC 522 Advanced Building Economics	4
ARC 523 Advanced Structural Systems	3
ARC 611 Architectural Studio III	6
ARC 612 Advanced Design Theory	4
ARC 613 Thesis Research	3
ARC 621 Master's Thesis	6
ARC 622 Advanced Urban Issues	4
Electives
Advanced Professional Practice	3
Professional Electives*	12
*Professional electives may be chosen for graduate courses in art, business and engineering with approval
PROGRAM TOTALS:	64

200 Bloomfield Avenue, West Hartford, CT 06117
(860) 768-4339 FAX (860) 768-5074
<http://uhaweb.hartford.edu/CETA>