

ORL's Student Recognition Program

Do you know a University of Hartford student who deserves a pat on the back? The Office of Residential Life is seeking out nominations from students, faculty, and staff. Our goal is to recognize students who exemplify one of our core values in all ways – from the very basic (taking out trash/holding doors) to the more involved (hosting a study group/advocating for fellow residents).

Students who are recognized receive a personalized card and a prize. If you would like to nominate a student, please send us the following information:

Student's name:
Reason for nomination:
Core value he/she modeled:

Send all nominations to mnelson@hartford.edu

Information about Our Core Values

The Office of Residential life embraces five key values areas that guide our daily practice and shape your residential experience. It is our hope that you will share in the values of our residential community and use them as tools for defining the standards that are important to you.

Civility: respect, accountability, responsibility

Community Connectedness: Hawk spirit, pride for residential living area, involvement

Education: commitment to learning and sharing knowledge, academic success

Leadership: role modeling, empowerment, advocacy, integrity

Diversity: respect, celebration, and appreciation for differences

Personal Development: facing new challenges, character development, community service