

About The Source

The Source, the University of Hartford's graduate and undergraduate student handbook, is issued by the Office of the Dean of Students and is published by the University of Hartford to introduce students to the opportunities, services, and regulations relating to life at the University. It is the responsibility of each student, both graduate and undergraduate, to be familiar with the University Misconduct Code and University policies contained in The Source, as well as any other regulations relating to life at the University, including those contained in The Manual of Academic Policies and Procedures, copies of which are available at the reference department of the Mortensen Library. In the unlikely event that the contents of The Source differ from The Manual of Academic Policies and Procedures, The Manual of Academic Policies and Procedures will take precedence. The University reserves the right to make changes in University regulations, policies, procedures, and other matters as it deems necessary.

Please note that not all of the information in The Source is equally applicable to both graduate and undergraduate students. If you have questions about any of the services or policies, please call the responsible office for clarification.

We hope that you will find this handbook useful. If you need assistance with any part of this book, please contact a faculty member or administrator for help.
